Today, the company has grown to over 300 employees and a portfolio that includes Chicago icons like Harry Caray's Seventh Inning Stretch, Let Them Eat Cake, Manny's Deli, Tuscany Café, and Miller's Pub. Other unique MAC One concepts include Sprigs, Taylor Street Market, Southside Pizzeria, Oak Street Beach Café, e@t&drink.com, and Halsted Street Tap.

MAC One's Locations

A Concourse

- e@t&drink.com – An assortment of pizzas, Chicago style hot dogs, gourmet sandwiches and salads can be enjoyed at e@t&drink.com while catching up on your favorite sports, news or entertainment info on your very own touch-screen monitor. Of course, we also offer a full service bar and sporting events on the big screens. Staying in the know while you travel is just as important as eating well!
- Tuscany Café – For authentic flavors of Italy's most famous region, join us at Tuscany Café, a local favorite first introduced by Chicago restaurateur Phil Stefani. You'll feel like you're dining in Chicago's Taylor Street neighborhood as you savor our selection of unique Italian entrees including pastas, brick oven pizza, panini, and as always, a full bar. After your meal, why not take a scoop of rich and creamy authentic gelato on the plane with you? Join us at Tuscany Café and say "ciao" to eating average airport food!
- Halsted Street Tap – Attached to the delicious Manny's Deli, Halsted Street Tap offers a full bar experience. Whether your thirst calls for a top shelf cocktail, a luxury wine, champagne, or any of our 25 bottled or draft beers, you'll find it at Halsted Street Tap! Enjoy a snack from Manny's Deli, your favorite drink, and catch the game before you catch your flight. However you choose spend your time with us, we're confident you'll be happy you did.
- Manny's Deli – Any Chicago native knows that the world's best corned beef sandwich, potato pancakes, and deli delights come from Manny's Deli. Any savvy Midway traveler knows that you can also enjoy all of your Manny's favorites in the terminal! Whether it's freshly sliced corned beef, rouben, or potato pancakes and matzo ball soup, eat your Manny's treats at our exclusive seating area located next door at Halsted Street Tap or take it on the plane. Either way you slice it, it's just like you're eating at the original!

B Concourse

- Oak Street Beach Café – Inspired by summer afternoons on Chicago’s pristine lakefront, fun is the name of the game at Oak Street Beach Café! Start your vacation early while you relax with your favorite cocktail, wine, bottled or draft beer and a juicy burger fresh off the grill. With a menu of exciting dishes and multiple screens showing your favorite sporting events, it’ll be time to board your plane before you know it.
- Red Mango (Coming Soon!) – For the health conscious traveler with discerning tastes, MAC One will soon open Red Mango, the good-for-you frozen yogurt concept that is sweeping the nation and revolutionizing the way we think about treats. With dozens of fresh, never frozen fruit and nut toppings, smoothies, and teas, you can once again eat what you want and feel good about it! The best part about Red Mango’s exciting product line is that every item contains probiotic, active yogurt cultures shown to improve overall wellbeing. So, go ahead and try one – you and your body deserve it!
- Taylor Street Market – For gourmet Italian inspired food on the B-Concourse, there is no better place than Taylor Street Market! Inspired by the authentic trattoria and bakeries in Chicago’s famed Little Italy, Taylor Street Market offers delicious panini, fresh Italian salads, sandwiches and snacks. Try a luxurious cup of Lavazza coffee or a creamy hand dipped ice cream cone – travelers tell us they make their trip fly by!
- South Side Pizzeria – As you would expect from its name, South Side Pizzeria upholds the tradition by serving up savory pizzas and piping hot calzones as only Chicago can! Enjoy a fresh salad with your pizza or take a famous Kim & Scott’s Pretzel with you on the plane. Whatever you choose, we’re sure you’ll love it!
- Sprigs - Would you enjoy a world-class salad made by specially trained associates right before your eyes? At Sprigs, guests choose from five suggested salads – the Athenian, Caesar, Southwest Chipotle, Pan-Asian, Chicken Cobb, or Heart Healthy salad – or create their own custom salad from any of over forty fresh and organic ingredients including organic greens, freshly grilled meat and fish, imported and aged cheeses, crisp vegetables and even humus. A wide array of dressings are available as well, all selected by MAC One’s certified master chef from among hundreds of top-quality choices. Eating on the go can be good for you once more!
- Miller’s Pub – Just like the original, Miller’s Pub at Midway offers Miller’s world-famous ribs, juicy burgers, and of course, ice cold beer. Catch your favorite game on our multiple screens or relax with a top shelf cocktail before your flight. Who says dining at the airport can’t be fun?
- Let Them Eat Cake – With gourmet pastries, cakes, cookies and bistro favorites like cotto ham on foccica bread and roast turkey on croissant, Let Them Eat Cake brings the best of a French sidewalk café right to the airport! Gab a luxurious cup of freshly brewed Lavazza coffee to go or a cocktail from our full bar. Either way you choose to shape your experience at Let Them Eat Cake, we’re confident you’ll be glad you did. Just like Marie said, Let Them Eat Cake!

Midway Triangle

- Harry Caray's Seventh Inning Stretch - The only full service restaurant and bar at Chicago's Midway International Airport, the energetic atmosphere of Harry Caray's Seventh Inning Stretch embodies the amiable personality of the restaurant's namesake. Enjoy a tender steak, juicy Holy Cow! Burger, or what the Chicago Tribune called the city's best chicken vesuvio in the city, all while amidst mahogany paneling, mosaic tile and a veritable museum of baseball history. Named for the late, renowned baseball announcer, the restaurant is ideal for travelers looking to take a freshly made sandwich to go or those who have a short respite while waiting for their flight. Harry Caray's Seventh Inning Stretch is also perfect for those looking to have a business meeting at a premier Chicago restaurant without leaving the airport.

C Concourse

- Let Them Eat Cake II - With gourmet pastries, cakes, cookies and bistro favorites like cotto ham on foccia bread and roast turkey on croissant, Let Them Eat Cake II brings the best of a French sidewalk café to the airport. Gab a luxurious cup of freshly brewed Lavazza coffee before your flight or before leaving the terminal. As the only eatery on the C-Concourse, however you choose to shape your experience at Let Them Eat Cake, we're confident you'll be glad you did.
